

SOUTH SHORE BEACH CLEANUP

VOLUNTEERS WELCOME

Alliance for the Great Lakes is teaming up with Barefoot Wine and Friends of South Shore Park to host a public Adopt-a-Beach™ cleanup at South Shore Beach. Following the cleanup, volunteers ages 21 and older are invited to attend a celebration featuring Barefoot Wine and food at Horny Goat Hideaway!

WHEN: THURSDAY, JULY 23, 2015

5:30 PM – 6:45 PM

7:00 PM

Beach Cleanup

Celebration for Volunteers

WHERE: South Shore Park Beach
2300 S. Nock St.
Milwaukee

Horny Goat Hideaway
2011 S. First St.
Milwaukee

Meet at the beach, northeast of the Park Pavilion

COST: No charge and open to the public; Celebration at Horny Goat is open to participants 21 years of age or older

WHO: Alliance for the Great Lakes: a nonprofit organization with the mission of conserving and restoring the world's largest freshwater resource using policy, education and local efforts, ensuring a healthy Great Lakes and clean water for generations of people and wildlife.
Barefoot Wine: fun, flavorful and affordable wines and bubbies.
Friends of South Shore Park: was organized in 1996 by area residents concerned about water quality, park maintenance and security, lakeshore erosion, and other issues that might threaten the health of South Shore Park as an outstanding community resource.